Unleash the Power of Partnership

An easy way to offer—or enhance—educational benefits

Offer quality educational benefits through a University of Redlands partnership

- Offer educational benefits—from a top university—for your employees or association members:

Strengthen your organization's intellectual capital

Make it possible for employees and members to enhance their skills or earn degrees while working full-time

Provide access to MBA or degree completion programs, certificates, workshops and courses

- If you've been looking for a way to deliver quality educational benefits at no cost to you, Redlands offers easy, turn-key options.
- If you currently offer tuition reimbursement or subsidized training, a Redlands partnership may reduce your costs.
- Provide customized programs—on or off site—if you have six or more employees who need specialized training.
- Take advantage of adjunct teaching opportunities and speaking engagements (ideal for department heads, VPs and CEOs).

Business Degrees for Working Adults

University of Redlands School of Business offers undergraduate and graduate programs tailored to the needs of busy professionals and working adults. We offer evening classes at eight locations throughout Southern California.

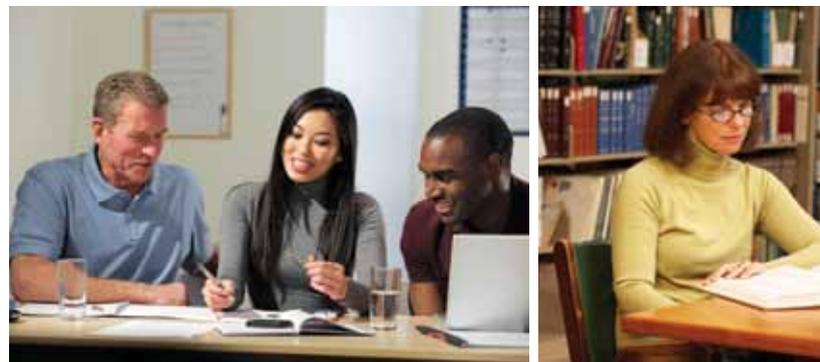

Degree programs include:

- Bachelor of Science in Business
- Bachelor of Arts in Management
- Master of Business Administration (MBA)
- Master of Arts in Management

Our programs are infused with the topics dominating business today. With an emphasis on critical thinking, problem solving, effective communication and collaboration in a global arena, professors guide students through relevant business curriculum.

Continuing Studies: Transferable Credits and No Application Fees

- Certificate programs, credit courses, workshops and seminars offer a convenient way for your employees or association members to earn credits toward a degree, boost their skills or explore a subject for professional or personal interest.
- Courses are taught by expert faculty who bring a wealth of real world experience to the classroom.
- No application is required for any of our Continuing Studies offerings.
- Credits are fully transferable to other universities. Different schools have different transfer policies, so students should check with an academic advisor before enrolling.
- 1-3 day workshops and seminars provide Continuing Education Units and are offered throughout the year.

Certificate Programs

A shifting economy and new technology demand that working professionals constantly upgrade their skills.

With a certificate, your employees or members may:

- Supplement a degree
- Augment current experience with new skills and stay current with trends
- Improve critical thinking and analytical skills
- Meet requirements for professional associations or regulatory agencies
- Apply what they learn to their specific industry or organization
- Conveniently take courses just one evening a week

Our 9-to-22-month certificate programs focus on specific areas of study, including:

- Project Management
- Healthcare Administration
- Human Resources Management
- Accounting
- Supply Chain Management
- Organizational Leadership

New certificate programs are added regularly.

Convenient Locations throughout Southern California

Classes are scheduled throughout the year at eight Southern California locations:

- Burbank
- Rancho Cucamonga
- Redlands
- Riverside
- San Diego
- Santa Ana
- Temecula
- Torrance

Classes are also held at on-site locations with corporate partners throughout Southern California.

Not every program is offered at every location at all times.
